

One Fund Scoring Rubric - 2019

	INCOMPLETE 0 points	UNSATISFACTORY 1 point	FAIR 2 points	GOOD 3 points	EXCEPTIONAL 4 points
What would you say is the greatest academic challenge for Kindergarten – 3 rd grade students at your school? How are you currently addressing this challenge?	The answer includes:
	No challenges discussed.	Mention of multiple and/or vague challenges but no plan to address challenges in the present or the future	Mention of multiple and/or vague challenges and a vague plan to address one or more challenges	A specific academic challenge and a specific plan to address that challenge in the present or future	A specific academic challenge and a detailed plan and/or evidence that this challenge is presently being addressed
How do you think this award (receiving a free book and seeing a live performance) can directly impact the students at your school?	The answer includes:
	No possible impact on students.	Impacts that are not clearly defined and/or Unclear if this impact aligns with the mission of One Fund	Impacts that are vaguely defined and/or an alignment with the One Fund mission although this may not be stated explicitly	One or more specific impacts and/or outcomes that related to literacy OR the arts	One or more specific impacts and details outcomes related to both literacy AND the arts
How will the teachers at your school further support this award both before and after the performance? What learning goals can this performance support?	The answer includes:
	No learning goals	Vague learning goals but No plan involving classroom teachers	Vague learning goals and A vague idea of how to involve classroom teachers	Specific learning goals (one or more) and A vague plan involving classroom teachers either before OR after the performance	Specific learning goals (one or more) and Specific lessons involving classroom teachers before AND after the performance